Fun Night Out

The Charles Olbon School Home & School Association recently had a special fun night out for the kids run by the "FBI" - Fathers or Father Figures Being Involved. The all male-run event was a challenge night. Gym teacher Mr. Volpe also helped out. The kids rotated through different challenges such as using your non-dominant hand to see how many pennies you could stack in a minute; holding a bowl on your head while scooping cotton balls out of a bowl on the table and getting them into the bowl on your head; and a rock, paper, scissors showdown. The kids had a blast!

A New Way Of Storytelling

At Beatrice Gilmore School in social studies, fourth graders are learning about NJ Native Americans. Students used higher order questioning and inferencing, as well as their schema to tell a story using the Native American written symbols language. Students then put them on paper and made them look as if they were on deer or bison hide. Shown are some of Mrs. Yesenosky's students.

Third Grade Teamwork

Students in Miss Capo's third grade class at Beatrice Gilmore School use peer conferences to rehearse, revise and edit their expository non-fiction books.

Facts First

The members of the Memorial School Health Club learned all about the Coronavirus. The Health Club has been doing daily announcements to the student body and making informational posters on protecting yourself against the virus.

Fifth grader donates hand sanitizers to schools and town entities

Memorial School fifth grader Jayden Perez, founder of the non-profit charity From The Bottom of My Heart, was concerned that many of his friends and students did not have hand sanitizer because stores are all sold out.

The 11-year-old decided to donate 1,000 hand spray sanitizers to the Woodland Park School District. He will also be donating sanitizers to the Alfred Baumann Public Library, the West Paterson Fire Department and Woodland Park Police Department. He loves his community, wants to keep it safe and clean, and wants everyone to be safe.

Jayden first started his charitable endeavors at 8-years-old with a Christmas toy drive for children in Puerto Rico followed by helping people and animals in Puerto Rico and Florida affected by hurricanes.

Last summer he worked to collect donations to fill 400 backpacks full of supplies to local students in need. He also appeared on the Kelly Clarkson Show last October, where his good work was not only spotlighted on a national stage, but rewarded.

Clarkson surprised Jayden with a donation of $10,000 worth of toys from SpinMaster, an all-expense paid trip to Legoland Florida and a personally cooked dinner by chef Bobby Flay at his New York restaurant. Clarkson told Jayden she hopes he becomes a politician someday because, "we need people like you."

Making A New Furry Friend

Preschool students at Charles Olbon School have been learning about Pets in their monthly unit. Mrs. Guariglia's class received a visit from Jolie, a therapy dog owned by district speech language pathologist Raine Brown.

The class got to pet her, give her treats, and each student was able to get a "high five." The students were excited to talk about their own pets and practiced being gentle and aware when touching the dog.

Congratulations to Memorial School's "Students of the Month" for March: grade 5 – Shawn O'Brien, grade 6 – Sait Lolovic, grade 7 – Rique Pires, and grade 8 – Madison Cook. These students are chosen as they possess the attributes of a "student with character" and they represent their grade for the month.
