Memorial School Principal Charles Silverstein set to retire

The Board of Education on Monday evening accepted the resignation of Memorial School Principal Charles Silverstein. In accepting the resignation, Board President MaryAnn Perro said that Silverstein would be greatly missed. "We wish him all the best in his retirement."

"After a wonderful 24 years as a part of the Woodland Park School District, I have decided to retire," he wrote in a letter sent to parents and guardians. "I want to thank the entire Woodland Park community for the appreciation, caring and love that I have always felt as principal of Memorial School. I will truly miss the wonderful students, great parents, and excellent staff as well as the supportive community members."

"Mr. Silverstein will surely be missed," said Superintendent Dr. Michele Pillari. "He has had such a positive impact on so many students, families and staff here in Woodland Park and we will be forever grateful. I wish him a lot of love, peace, happiness and joy as he enters the next chapter of his life."

Beatrice Gilmore Principal Sharon Tomback worked with Silverstein for five years as vice principal at Memorial School and said that his legacy is "not one that can be captured in a quick quote. Rather, it can be seen first-hand in the lives of the countless individuals he has touched. Mr. Silverstein has a heart of gold and an unwavering passion for doing right by children. He will be deeply missed."

While Silverstein notes it will be very strange not to come to Memorial School every day, he is looking forward to spending time with his wife, children and grandchildren. While he plans to enjoy fishing, gardening and traveling, he foresees working part time at some point with special needs children.

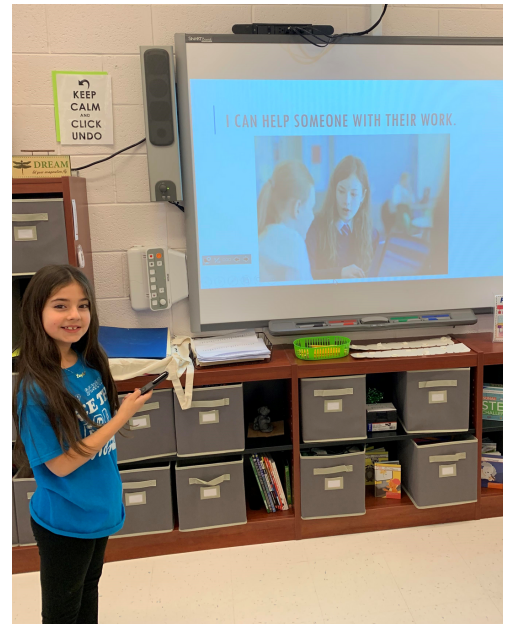

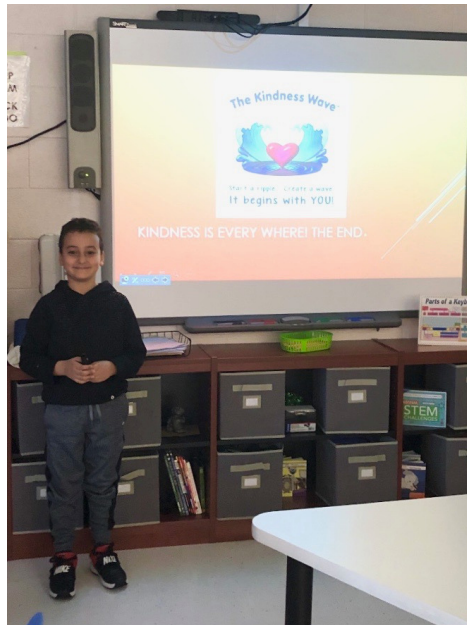

"Hopefully, I have had a positive impact throughout the years. It has been my good fortune to have made close friends and most importantly, been a part of Woodland Park's overall landscape," he said.

Although he is a Paramus resident, Woodland Park is like home and the Memorial community has become family. "I have no regrets," he said. "Not one."

Prior to his 24 years at Memorial School, Silverstein worked as an assistant principal for eight years in East Orange and 12 years as a teacher in Paterson.

Kindness Creations

Students in second grade at Charles Olbon School have created PowerPoint presentations to celebrate Random Acts of Kindness. They are so proud of their projects and enjoyed presenting them in class!

March Madness Winner

The winner of the 2019 March Book Madness at Memorial School is "Number the Stars" by Lois Lowry. Language arts teacher Miss Moore compiled a list of books most commonly checked-out by middle school students. Over the course of the month, students voted weekly for their favorites.

Lending a Helping Hand

Several local Cub Scouts from Pack 31 and Daisy Scouts lent a hand at the Borough's Morris Canal walkway clean up day last Saturday. Over 30 bags of garbage and debris were collected.

Fourth grade students are participating in Keep A Clear Mind program

All fourth grade students at Beatrice Gilmore School are participating in the Keep A Clear Mind program, which is a parent-child, take-home drug education program sponsored by the WP Municipal Alliance Against Alcoholism and Drug Abuse.

Students are given an activity book each week for four weeks along with incentives to complete the books. Students take the activity books home and do the program with their parents. This involves reading material, answering questions and completing a few fun activities. They receive a student incentive (bumper sticker, bracelet, keychain, bookmark, etc.) for showing their teacher that their parents have signed, indicating they have worked with them to complete the activity book.

Newsletters will also continue to be sent home for a few weeks after the four booklets with the intention of providing parents additional information and prompt them to continue the conversation with their children about making good health decisions and saying “no” to alcohol, tobacco, marijuana, and other drugs.
